The Yoga Show programmes is produced in an A5 format. The programme is the window of the show and printed in full colour throughout. This valuable reference guide will be circulated to our databases and distributed through outlets within London and the home counties prior to the event.

What better way to reach this specific target audience, than to advertise in the Yoga Show Programme?

The programme is used as a valuable reference for information not only at the exhibition itself, but also before and afterwards.

Advertisement copy to be supplied in the following formats:
